

2023 Giving Recap

A Record-Breaking Year

$13M+

donated to charitable organizations around the world

4,400+

charitable organizations supported

Benevity's Community
Impact Award Winner

Annual Grants

$10.3M

in strategic grants benefiting first responder programs and technology & engineering education

$1.8M

in scholarships to underserved and underrepresented populations
20% increase YoY

$780,000

in scholarships to children & families of fallen first responders

18%

increase in funding to programs that promote diversity among first responders

$1.4M

awarded to first responder mental health programs, a 23% increase YoY

60%

of technology & engineering education grants directly support women

New in 2023

Bright Minds, Bold Futures Scholarship Program

- First owned recurring scholarship program
- Awarded $100,000 in scholarships to 37 deserving underserved & underrepresented students pursuing degrees in technology & engineering education

Grant Partner Summit on First Responder Mental Health

- 17 nonprofit partners attended the 1.5 day conference from across North America
- Focus on capacity building and enhancement of first responder wellness programs

Disaster Relief

$650,000+

collectively donated by the Foundation & employees to support various global disasters

Volunteerism

Nearly 100,000 volunteer hours

Nearly $3.2M

in value generated* through employees' volunteerism

Nearly 1 in 3

employees volunteered almost a 25% increase YoY

500+

employee-created volunteer opportunities

30%

YoY increase in volunteer hours logged

Global Months of Service

8-week volunteer-a-thon

Volunteerism in 48 states & across 43 countries

60,000+ volunteer hours

26% increase in participation YoY

Employee Giving

$1.3M

in matching donations

150

employee-created giving opportunities raised $300,000+

Nearly 1 in 3

employees donated on the MotoCares Portal

Donors in 47

countries

*Based on a study by Independent Sector.