

Trim response times with Avtec Scout + Rave

Avtec Scout + Rave Alert + Rave Collaborate

Ecosystem connections

The Rave Suite and Avtec Scout™ dispatch consoles are both tools that help organizations communicate critical information quickly and clearly. When combined, Avtec Scout, Rave Alert and Rave Collaborate can improve coordination, consolidate communication and reduce the steps needed to request help.

Avtec Scout can handle a broad range of business and mission-critical communication needs — bringing together your radio, telephony, broadband and LTE technologies. Access Rave Alert directly from your Scout screen to quickly send targeted messages and mass notifications. Take coordination and automation a step further by adding Rave Collaborate to manage communications plans, assign and verify completed tasks, monitor events, automate reminders, and more.

Simplify

Consolidate the steps needed to communicate quickly.

Notify

Provide incident awareness to multiple groups of people quickly and initiate downstream systems.

Automate

Digitize and automate your standard operating procedures for advanced, after-action reporting.

Here's how it works:

A small fire breaks out in a manufacturing plant. Workers use their two-way radios to notify dispatch, and the dispatcher calls 911 from the Scout console.

From the Scout Screen the dispatcher can access Rave Alert to send out messages to the wider organization via text, email, voice calls, social media, digital signage, sirens, etc., to let employees know to avoid the area.

From Rave Alert, the dispatcher can send out geopolls to solicit additional information, send follow-up messages based on responses, and more.

As the incident unfolds, Rave Collaborate automatically provides task checklists, situation-specific resources and real-time reporting. Rave Collaborate records your step-by-step processes and communications.
