Caution Concerning Forward Looking Statements

This section contains important information about our forward-looking statements. Please also see our annual reports on Form 10-K and quarterly reports on Form 10-Q that we file with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”).

(for communications dated on or after December 15, 2022)

This public communication contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of applicable federal securities law. These statements are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and generally include words such as “believes,” “expects,” “intends,” “anticipates,” “estimates” and similar expressions. We can give no assurance that any actual or future results or events discussed in these statements will be achieved. Any forward-looking statements represent our views only as of today and should not be relied upon as representing our views as of any subsequent date. Readers are cautioned that such forward-looking statements are subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could cause our actual results to differ materially from the statements contained in this public communication. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding: our financial outlook for the full year of 2022 with respect to our business generally, as well as specifically in our Video Security and Access Control technology; future activities of video security and access control technologies; our future mergers and acquisitions activity; and the future importance of cybersecurity to our customers. We caution the reader that the risks and uncertainties below, as well as those in Part I Item 1A of our 2021 Annual Report on Form 10-K, Part II Item 1A of our Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the quarters ended April 2, 2022, July 2, 2022 and October 1, 2022 and in our other SEC filings available for free on the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov and on our website at www.motorolasolutions.com, could cause our actual results to differ materially from those estimated or predicted in the forward-looking statements. Many of these risks and uncertainties cannot be controlled by us, and factors that may impact forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to:

- the continuing and future impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on our business;
- our inability to purchase at acceptable prices a sufficient amount of materials, parts, and components, as well as software and services, to meet the demands of our customers, and any disruption to our suppliers or significant increase in the price of supplies;
- the impact of current global economic and political conditions in the markets in which we operate (including the Russia-Ukraine conflict and inflation);
- the impact, including increased costs and potential liabilities, associated with changes in laws and regulations regarding privacy, data protection and information security;
- challenges relating to existing or future legislation and regulations pertaining to artificial intelligence (“AI”), AI-enabled products and the use of biometrics or other video analytics;
- the impact of government regulation of radio frequencies;
- audits and regulations and laws applicable to our U.S. government customer contracts and grants;
We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
